

Grade Crossing Tragedy Near Clarksboro, N. J. : Up From Mine Depths : Schoolgirl Cricket

THE TRUCK in which the merry-makers of the Glen Social Club met death and injury at Clarksboro, was carried 120 yards up the roadway on the front of the locomotive.

WRECKED MOTORTRUCK in which many of the members of the Glen Social Club of Philadelphia were killed and injured, when a Salem Branch train of the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad struck the car full of young people at a grade crossing near Clarksboro, N. J., eighteen miles below Camden, while they were on the way to a dance.

MINERS COMING up out of a shaft on a cage. Union leaders claim that there are over 400,000 miners on strike. The nonunion bituminous fields in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky are operating at somewhere near normal.

THE SALEM (N. J.) pike grade crossing near Clarksboro, where a Camden-bound train from Salem, on the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad, crashed into a truckload of men and women on their way to a Halloween party. The impact carried the motortruck as far as the tall poplar at the left.

ENGLISH SCHOOL GIRLS at cricket. An accomplished batswoman of Roedean College, near Brighton, placing a ball in the slips.

ARISTOCRATIC CANINES and just good old dogs were represented in the Fifth Annual Plain Dog and Pet Animal Show of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The little prize competitor, above is Tiny exhibited by Mrs. William Hansen.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ANNE GENEVE BROWNE, 110 South Forty-third street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.